■ Introductory Statement and Rationale

(a) Introductory Statement

We have fully implemented the new Primary Language Curriculum 2017 from Junior infants to second class. As of September 2019, it will be phased into the senior classes. Following this, a full review of the school plan for English will be undertaken in 2021 to reflect the new curricular changes in all classes. This plan was formulated by members of the teaching staff of St Louise de Marillac and contains the elements and learning outcomes of the new Primary Language Curriculum for stages 1, 2 3 and 4.

In-school support was sought from PDST with regard to supporting and training the staff in relation to the implementation of the new language curriculum, specifically in the area of Oral Language. The facilitators focussed on teacher planning and attention was drawn to the support materials available.

We also continue to use Team teaching in literacy throughout the school year as we feel the children have greater opportunity to read at their own levels in smaller groups.

(b) Rationale

This plan is a record of our decisions regarding English and it reflects both the new Primary Language Curriculum and the Primary Curriculum, 1999. It is intended to guide teachers in their individual planning for English.

■ Vision and Aims

(a) Vision

Our plan envisages the school's characteristic spirit, which is that all pupils are cherished equally and, to aid them in achieving their true potential. We recognise that English plays a huge part in every child's life, not only as their spoken language, but as a medium through which all other aspects of the Curriculum subjects are taught.

(b) Aims

Our school continues to endorse the aims of the Primary School Curriculum 1999 for English until the new Primary Language Curriculum is fully implemented.

- To promote positive attitudes and develop an appreciation of the value of language spoken, read and written
- To create, foster and maintain the child's interest in expression and communication
- To develop the child's ability to engage appropriately in listener-speaker relationships
- To develop confidence and competence in listening, speaking, reading and writing
- To develop cognitive ability and the capacity to clarify thinking through oral language, writing and reading
- To enable the child to read and write independently
- To enhance emotional, imaginative and aesthetic development through oral, reading and writing experiences

It is acknowledged that Ireland is linguistically and culturally diverse-our school includes children with another language as their first language

Strategies to improve Oral Language in St Louise de Marillac Primary School

• Staff are made aware of St Louise de Marillac Oral Speech, Language and Communication Policy which is attached as Appendix 1

The five contexts for discrete oral language as outlined in the English curriculum are used to direct teachers planning

- Talk and discussion
- Play and games
- Story
- Poetry and rhyme
- Improvisational drama
- Oral Language is taught as an explicit weekly lesson or as part of station teaching
- Oral language is taught explicitly through Aistear in junior and senior infants
- Oral Language is integrated across the curriculum.

The 5 components of effective Oral Language instruction are promoted. These are

- o The teaching a variety of spoken texts
- o Promoting auditory memory
- o Creating a language learning environment
- o Teaching and extending vocabulary and conceptual knowledge
- Developing listening and speaking skills
- Every effort is made to afford pupils the opportunity to express themselves and develop their listening skills while interacting with others both formally and informally.
- To develop speaking skills, pair work, group work, role-play, debating, and drama, interviewing, reading text and poetry aloud and greeting visitors all feature in our delivery of the Oral Language curriculum.
- Vocabulary development is provided by the teacher. Teacher modelling of vocabulary and expression is pivotal to every Oral Language lesson To develop higher order thinking skills, students from junior infants to second class use the 'Thinking Skills' resource pack
- An awareness of the broad rules that govern social interaction underpins most lessons e.g. eye contact, turn-taking, body language, tone of voice, clarity of expression intonation etc.
- A specific speech and language intervention programme, called 'Talk Boost' is implemented in Junior and Senior Infants, which is a targeted 10-week intervention for 4-7 year old children, with language that is delayed.

The use of the Spoken Text Types from First Steps also forms the basis of our Whole School Literacy Plan for Oral Language

Suggested Timeframe for Implementation of Spoken Text Types

Speaking and listening Skills permeate each Text Type

Term 1 Co-operative Group Roles Partner and Small Group

Sept: Conversations

Classroom conversations are dialogues that occur between students and teachers and between students and students. They are used to create, negotiate or deepen the understanding of a topic.

Oct: Storytelling and Anecdotes

Telling stories, recalling events and relating personal anecdotes has been how many cultures and societies have preserved and passed on their traditions. We constantly communicate information through stories e.g. Wait until I tell you a good one about ... Storytelling is a vital part of everyday conversation and so should be an important feature in all classrooms. Teachers can extend storytelling skills into performance opportunities such as play, recital in drama

Nov/Dec: Interest Talks

Interest talks are a way for pupils to share topics of personal interest with others. Choosing a topic they know about well allows pupils to concentrate on developing the skills needed to organise and present the information to others. Interest talks contain information that is used to describe and they can also contain explanations. They can be part of daily sharing sessions with a partner/small group or they can be developed into planned, formal presentations

Term 2 Co-operative Group Roles Partner and Small Group

Jan: Oral Reports

Oral reports give pupils experience in selecting and organising information that will suit specific purposes, situations and audiences. Reports can be planned such as reporting on a project and unplanned such as the plenary part of a lessons. Oral reports are those based on a shared focus of interest or particular topics being studied at that particular point in time. Subjects like science and geography lend themselves to organising reports.

Feb: Giving Instructions

Giving instructions and outlining procedures involve communicating a series of steps in order to accomplish an end. The language used for this spoken text includes the use of dictate verbs such as put, go, turn, take etc.

March: Questioning and Interviews

Questioning encourages higher order thinking and forms the basis of inquiry. Good questioning enhances understanding, as it provides opportunities to explain, clarify, probe, make connections and identify problems and issues. Questioning encourages dialogue between pupils and teachers and influences pupil's use of questioning to promote their own learning. Self-questioning enables pupils to reflect and assess their own results and efforts with a view to making them better.

Term 3 Co-operative Group Roles Partner and Small Group

April: Arguments and Informal Debates

The purpose of debating and developing arguments is to persuade an audience to accept a particular point of view. Debates provide pupils with practice in giving and justifying opinions. Pupils will be required to research topics to provide relevant information to support their point of view. Debates can be used for exploring issues and different points of view such as topics from literature being studied in class or local concerns such as pollution, phone masts and current affairs

May: Formal Debates

The purpose of debating and developing arguments is to persuade an audience to accept a particular point of view. Debates provide pupils with practice in giving and justifying opinions. Pupils will be required to research topics to provide relevant information to support their point of view. Debates can be used for exploring issues and different points of view such as topics from literature being studied in class or local concerns such as pollution, phone masts and current affairs

Strategies to improve Writing in St Louise de Marillac Primary School

Through writing activities based on the genres the children will develop concepts, dispositions and skills in relation to:

- Motivation and choice
- Conventions of print and sentence structure
- Purpose, genre and voice
- Writing process
- Response
- Children are encouraged to clarify their thoughts through writing. This may be done following a language lesson or writing about any decisions they made about a particular topic.
- We use different genres of writing {Formal/informal} from First Steps to develop the ability to use different registers of language. The writing genres are explicitly taught using the gradual release of responsibility model across the school as per the template below.

Suggeste	ed Timeframe for Implementation of Writing Genres
Infants to	Sixth Class
Term 1	Narrative Generally tells an imaginative story, although some narratives may be based on fact. The focus is specific sequential events and actions. The aim is to engage the reader in an imaginative experience. ~ First Steps Resource Book: chapter 3
	Recount Recount: Generally based on the direct experiences of the author but may also be imaginative or outside the author's experiences. The focus is on sequencing. First Steps Resource Book: Chapter 4
	Writing to socialise
Term 2	Report writing Reports are factual texts that present information clearly. The purpose of a report is to systematically organise and record factual information to classify and describe things. First Steps Resource Book – Chapter 6
	Procedural writing Procedural tests follow a discernible pattern – listing sequencing of actions or steps to show the way to do something. Procedures can be oral or written. The focus is on ordered sequences. First Seeps Resource Book – Chapter 5
Term 3	Explanatory writing Explanations are written to explain how something works or the process involved in actions, events or behaviour. The purpose is to explain the processes involved in natural and social phenomena, or to explain how something works.
	Exposition/ Persuasive writing An exposition is a critical evaluation of ideas involving persuasion or debate. The purpose is to present a logical argument from a particular point of view, analysing the arguments and concluding with an overriding opinion or conclusive argument. First Steps Resource Book - Chapter 8

- There is a consistent approach to the process of "Writing, Editing and Redrafting" of work. See Appendix 2 for agreed Whole School editing symbols

Key elements in the Early Writing Stage in the school

1. Early writing/ Free writing

Through appropriately playful learning experiences, children should be able to

- Attend to, take part in and have fun mark-making, drawing and writing, across languages where appropriate, to communicate with others.
- Choose appropriate tools, content and topics for their own writing and select texts for sharing with others.
- Use basic conventions of print and sentence structure

This approach aims to

- develop children's confidence by giving them the skills from which they can write
- focus on pre-writing skills
- engage in free writing consistently
- practice and develop their writing skills in their copies and on our whiteboard
- facilitate and encourage writing through Aistear

Structure of Early Writing in Infants

- Infants will have access to writing materials such as paper, cards, labels, post-its and pens, pencils, markers etc. to be used during free play times.
- During free play and in discrete lessons pupils will be encouraged to draw and label plans for construction projects in blocks, Lego and junk art. Children will make signs for socio-dramatic areas. Children will be supplied with materials to suit each particular theme such as appointment books and notepads to suit each particular Aistear topic.

Introduction of formal letter formation

- The lower case letters (excluding q) are taught in Junior Infants as .per the table below in accordance with our phonics programme
- Letter formation sheet demonstrates attached in the appendix shows how letters are formed

Term	Letter Formation Taught
Sept – Dec.	Pre-writing/ Fine motor activities
Jan – March	s, a, t, í, p, n, c, k, e, h, r, m, d
April – June	g, o, u, l f, b, j, z, w, v, y, x

2. Concept of Writing

Children are introduced to the concept of writing by observing the teacher model the process.

Key elements in the development of Handwriting Skills in the school

Handwriting scheme

The development of St Louise de Marillac's Handwriting Scheme is supported by school-devised resources and/or commercial material/workbooks.

Size and formation of all lower-case and capital letters & introduction of Cursive Writing

There is agreement on the size and formation of all lower-case and capital letters throughout the school as illustrated by Appendix 3.

Junior infants are taught 25 lower case letters in print format with tails.

Senior infants are introduced to joining vowel digraphs in cursive print and this skill is mastered in first class.

Cursive writing is introduced in 2nd Class.

Cursive writing is continued from 3rd to 6th class and all presentation exercises are to be written in cursive print.

Pencil grip

We encourage children to hold pencil properly using the tripod grip and we provide a pencil grip and extended fine-motor activities and exercises for children that find it difficult to hold the pencil. See Appendix 4 for images of correct pencil grip and posture.

Pencil type

In the early stages of writing a chunky 3-sided pencil is encouraged. Once the teacher is satisfied that proper pencil grip has been achieved, then the child may use an ordinary pencil.

Introduction of pens

Children are introduced to writing formally with pen in 4th Class, where the Pen Licence is used as an incentive.

We have a left-handed scissors for children.

Fine Motor Skills Development

The infant teachers incorporate a variety of fine motor skills activities into their daily teaching. Children with poor fine motor skills are provided with additional supports and if necessary the advice of an Occupational Therapist may be sought.

	curriculum

Parents

Parents are made aware of the school's handwriting scheme as a note is sent home each year from junior infants to 4th class which is included as Appendix 5.

The development of Spellings Skills

The focus of planning is on the child's acquisition of spelling skills and his/her progress with spelling.

Key elements in the development of spelling skills

Spelling lists are introduced formally in 1st class and are based on the Jolly Phonics and Jolly Grammar programme from 1st to 3rd class. Infants may be given word boxes, word lists or letter sounds in order to practise segmenting and writing letter sounds and words. Spellbound is used from 4th to 6th class.

There is a consistent multi-dimensional approach to teaching spellings as we work with the same spelling book so there is continuity from class to class. A separate spelling/phonological awareness programme provides a more detailed breakdown of the spellings for each class level, which has currently been developed from infants to 2^{nd} class and is included as Appendix 6.

Approaches to promote spellings

We use a variety of approaches to promote spellings-Jolly phonics, ICT, Spelling Bee{Last one standing}, Nessy Learning.

Monitoring of Spellings

Spellings are monitored by each teacher throughout the school in order to plan for and ensure acquisition and progression. Children are given weekly spelling and dictation tests. Spellings are also monitored during independent writing activities.

Pre-spelling activities

Children engage in pre-spelling activities through the development of phonological and phonemic awareness in the Jolly Phonics Programme.

Resources

Spellings are included from the textbooks, Jolly Phonics word lists, Tricky words, Dolch List and Word Families in Infants.

Approximate Spelling

We realise that all children have varying abilities and this becomes evident when it comes to spelling tests. We do not expect exact spelling in early writing and children that are weaker in this area are given support and spellings are appropriately differentiated.

Parental Awareness

Parents are made aware of how they might help their children with spellings through home-school communication.

3. Assessment and Record Keeping

Assessment for Learning and of Learning

School Policy, in line with new Guidelines, will focus on two principal approaches to assessment: =Assessment for Learning (AfL): This is used on an ongoing basis to inform Teaching and Learning. It will include the Day-to-Day (minute-to-minute) interactions in the classroom and school grounds. The teacher can use AfL to evaluate his/her own teaching as well as interpreting the child's progress and how best to support the children in their work. ==Assessment of Learning (AoL): This is used to periodically record progress/achievement for the purpose of reporting to Parents and others. AoL focuses on medium and long-term assessment.

Tl	The following methods of Assessment for Learning (AfL) are:
1	Teacher Observation	By recording details of the child says, does or makes things, the teacher can gather important information about the child's learning.
	Teacher designed tests and tasks	Weekly Spelling tests/ Dictation tests
2	tests and tasks	Vocabulary tests: Sight vocabulary/high-frequency word tests are administered from Junior Infants – 2nd class . These are compiled using vocabulary from the Jolly phonics tricky word list and/or DOLCH list. The Jolly Phonics word boxes are used in Junior and Senior infants with ongoing assessment
		• Cloze Tests: Cloze test are given to children from 1st-6th class to develop their skills of using contextual clues in reading.
		 Comprehension Boxes2, 3, 4, 5 & 6: Passage comprehensions which develop the following comprehension strategies: Literal (Self-Questioning, Creating Images, Skimming, Scanning) Inferential (Comparing, Connecting) Evaluative (Determining Importance, Summarising, Synthesising)
3	Teacher Questioning	 Make questioning more meaningful: Involve the whole class Think, pair, share Provide think time Try 'no hands up' Closed questions Open questions and probing questions should be used.
4	Pupil Self-Assessment	Assessment is the means by which pupils take responsibility for their own learning. However, we need to train pupils to self-assess. The following strategies are used to aid self-assessment. Examples include the use of:
		Self-editing / drafting / redrafting in Creative Writing.
		KWL Chart with an informative text
		Junior & Senior Infants self-assess their work pictorially.
		Oral feedback to teacher as self-reflection on their work.
		Two Stars and a wish
		Pupil Learning Journals
		Reading Fluency-Self-Assessment Rubric

		Accelerated Reader Reading Log
		This data can be found in children's copies, work samples i.e. portfolio.
5	Conferencing	Teacher/Child together reflect on items of the child's work and the child is
	Teacher/Child	allowed to express their own opinions and have them respected. Pupils work,
	Conferencing	including non-written work and homework is regularly monitored and
	Pupil/Pupil	corrected. Pupils are provided with constructive feedback on their learning.
		Teaching is amended in the light of feedback. Teachers check pupil understanding during and at the end of lessons. Pupils are provided with meaningful feedback on their work to improve their Learning. Station teaching facilitates teacher/pupil conferencing or pupil/pupil conferencing
6	Conferencing Teacher/Parent	Parent/Teacher conferencing is important for sharing information. It is reacher/r arent	important that parents feel welcome in the school. Meaningful information regarding pupil progress is effectively communicated to parents regularly during the year e.g. Reading logs, homework journals, AR home connect etc.
		Formal individual parent-teacher meetings take place in November and support plan meetings occur twice a year. At these meetings, parents are _		consulted to ascertain their perspective on their children's progress.
7	Assessment file/folder on individual children	An on-going record of student progress is kept on file in teachers' classrooms.
		This folder on each child supports the teacher in reporting on a child's learning progress and achievement to parents and others (AoL) while also helping the teacher identify the next steps to be taken to build on and develop the child's learning (AfL). The assessment folder is a key element in supporting effective teaching and learning rather than an end in itself.
		Gathering information about a child's learning is important, but of central importance is how this information is used to improve learning.
		The information regarding literacy kept in teacher's assessment folders includes:
		Aistear assessment (junior and senior infants)
		Independent writing samples-3times a year (Handwriting, spellings and grammar)
		Teacher Observations/Notes
		Vocabulary assessment
		Oral report assessment rubric/checklist
		• AR Star Assessment (3 rd to 6 th class)

The following methods of Assessment of Learning (AoL) are:

1. Screening Tests

The Continuum of Support as outlined in Special Educational Needs, A Continuum of Support, Guidelines for Teachers (DES 2007) will be followed. (See SEN Policy for further details)

Screening tests are used to facilitate the early identification of learning strengths / difficulties. Lists of tests include:

- Speech and Language Screeners are completed with junior infant pupils who are not being referred for Speech and Therapy
- Phonological Awareness Assessment (Sounds Abound/ Sound Linkage/ Jolly Phonics/Phonemic Awareness)
- Tricky words, Dolch lists, Class reader lists, HFW etc (Sight Vocabulary)
- PM Assessment-Running Records
- Annual Middle Infant Screening Test (M.I.S.T) testing for children in senior infants, carried out in the second term of Senior Infants.
- Standardised tests
- Diagnostic tests

2. Standardised Tests

- The Drumcondra Reading test is administered on individual children from 1st to 6th class in May
- All data is recorded on Aladdin: raw score, standard score, percentile rank, STEN, Reading age
- The Principal and staff are all involved in the analysis of scores relevant to their class or group. Specific discussion time is set aside in staff meetings/Croke Park hours.
- Teachers use the results to inform their teaching, to motivate children, to select children for further diagnostic testing and/or SEN or referral to outside agencies to access additional support for the child.
- SEN priority is decided on the basis of the results and other relevant factors i.e. the Continuum of Support process
- Reading groups are formulated largely on the results of the Drumcondra Reading Test in conjunction with other relevant observations or assessments

3. Diagnostic Tests

- The Non-Reading Intelligence Test (N.R.I.T) is administered to all 1st, 3rd and 5th class pupils in September/October and the results are recorded on Aladdin
- The Dyslexia Screening Test (DST) is available to the school and may be given, with parental consent, to any child who is presenting with reading and/or learning difficulties consistent with dyslexia or to any child where there is a history of dyslexia in the family.
- The Test2r may be given to pupils in senior infants or 1st class, whose academic or developmental progress is of concern to the class teacher and Principal.
- Diagnostic Reading Analysis 3rd Edition
- York Assessment of Reading for Comprehension (YARC)
- Early Reading: York Assessment of Reading for Comprehension (YARC)
- British Ability Scales Word Reading Test (BAS)
- The class teacher, Principal and SET select the children for diagnostic assessment.
- Support plans are drawn up, or a differentiated programme developed, in accordance with the results.

4. Diagnostic Tests that are also available

- The Belfield Infant Assessment Profile (B.I.A.P) may be given to pupils in infants or to children up to first or early second class whose academic or developmental progress is of concern to the class teacher and Principal.
- Vernon Reading and Spelling Tests may be administered to assess the reading and spelling progress of specific children or class groups.
- The Neale Analysis Test of reading ability is available to the school and may be given, with parental consent, to any child whose reading fluency or comprehension is of particular concern or is above the standard expected for their age group.

4. Children with Different Needs

Children with learning disabilities

Teachers support and ensure the participation of all children in language activities through differentiation. All children are enabled to make an important contribution regardless of academic achievement.

• We have a collaborative approach in devising Support Plans and individual targets

Children with exceptional ability

• The school supports children of exceptional ability by providing the opportunity for them to participate in the AR Programme, project work, small group ICT activities and through Team Teaching Approaches in literacy.

5. Equality of Participation and Access

- There are equal opportunities given to boys and girls to participate in all aspects of the English Programme.
- All children have access to services, facilities or amenities in the school environment.
- A Book Rental Scheme is in operation throughout the school for all.

6. Organisational Planning

• The Primary Language Curriculum and the process of language learning is developed through discrete lessons, integrated activities, and a thematic/cross curricular approach.

7. Homework

- English homework reflects the active learning approach as described in the curriculum.
- There is a balance in homework assignments between oral, reading and writing activities.
- Most pupils are assigned the same homework but there is differentiation when homework is assigned to a child, who may need special consideration.
- There is co-ordination between the class teacher and the SET in setting homework assignments

8. Library

- We have class libraries in the junior classes and some of the senior classes that are regularly updated and additional books are available for classes in Room 6
- There is a wide range of books available from the class and school libraries. There is a variety of fiction, non-fiction and poetry. A range of abilities is catered for at all levels.
 - o Juniors big books, books with graded levels of difficulty, books covering a wide range of interests, audio books, rhyming books
 - o Seniors books covering a wide interest level, fiction, factual, reference, poetry, joke books, puzzle books, books suitable for different reading ages
 - o There is a reading corner in the junior class rooms
 - o Children in junior and senior infants choose a book from the class library with their parents

weekly to take home

- o Children are encouraged to do book reviews.
- o Occasional visits from authors to the school are welcome.
- o Classes visit the local library at least twice a year

9. Resources and ICT

Resources which are being utilised at our school include

- PM Gems levels 1-10; PM Readers levels 1-25
- Wellington Square, Ginn 360, Read at Home and Treetop series

- Room 6 contains supplementary books and topic based books to allow teachers to update their class libraries
- Comprehension Box-Prim-ED 3, 4, 5 and 6
- Folen's Book Pack

10. Individual Teachers' Planning and Reporting

It should be borne in mind that in planning for the teaching of English in the classroom, the teacher needs to take account of the integrated nature of the subject.

- The whole school plan and the curriculum documents for English provide information and guidance to individual teachers for their long and short-term planning.
- The Cúntas Míosúil provides a great insight into the work done in English each month and so serves as a support in reviewing and developing the whole school plan/individual teacher preparation for following years.

11. Staff Development

- Teachers have access to current research, reference books, resource materials, websites dealing with language learning.
- Teachers are always informed of and encouraged to attend courses available in relation to the English language.
- Time is allocated at various staff meetings throughout the year to discuss literacy issues, language development, specific language disorders.
- Teachers can avail of internal and/or external expertise e.g. from PDST to inform and upskill the school community on these issues.
- Whole staff training in the Primary Language Curriculum is in place.

12. Parental Involvement

- Parents are made aware of the central importance of oral language in the learning process. Parents are informed of this during Parent-Teacher Meetings.
- Parents are made aware of the importance of involving children in purposeful language activity e.g. reading stories and discussing aspects of the story. Expanding their vocabulary by naming objects around the house, discussing favourite programmes /games.

- Parents are encouraged to support their child's reading by reading with them on a regular basis
- Parents can assist in the development of their child's writing by helping them with formation of letters at the initial stages of pre-writing. The teachers provide feedback to parents if their child needs further help with their writing skills.
- Information about pupils' progress in English is shared with parents during parent-teacher meetings and support plan meetings
- Parents of junior and senior infant students participate in a weekly library activity where they select a book with their child on an assigned day to be returned the following week.

13. Community Links

- Children visit Ballyfermot Library on a regular basis.
- Children may be asked to interview local people as a basis for writing their own books, e.g. collecting ghost stories, life in the school thirty years ago.
- Children display their work locally, e.g. The Civic Centre, Ballyfermot Library.
- Speech and Language therapist works in the school one day per week. Staff help to implement the programme of work given to the pupil.
